

Daniel Blouse Obituary

MT2 B 66-68 Plank Owner

Daniel Blouse, 65, died May 13, 2008, at Bible Baptist School in Fort Pierce. He was born in Detroit. He served in the Navy on a nuclear submarine. Before retirement, he was a computer engineer. He earned an elementary teaching degree after moving to Florida and was employed by Bible Baptist School in Fort Pierce. He also served as a Sunday school teacher at the Crossing Community Church in Fort Pierce and Vero Beach. Survivors include his mother, Ila Lee Stenzel of Port St. Lucie; son, Jeremy Blouse of Budd Lake N.J., daughters, Danielle Fortini of Sparta, N.J., and Kimberly Marcizak of Byram, N.J.; sister, Linda Rinderknecht of Jacksonville; brothers, Rick Blouse and John Demsick of Vero Beach; and seven grandchildren. Memorial contributions may be made to the Crossing Community Church, 8103 Indrio Road, Fort Piece, FL, 34951. SERVICES: A service will be at 1 p.m. May 18 at the Vero Beach campus of the Crossing Community Church, 1198 90th Ave., Vero Beach, followed by a potluck meal. Arrangements are by All County Funeral Home and Crematory, Treasure Coast Chapel.

Published in the TC Palm on May 17, 2008

- See more at:

<http://www.legacy.com/obituaries/tcpalm/obituary.aspx?page=lifestory&pid=109839184#sthash.hNIL4RCa.dpuf>