

Timothy Mangum

1950-2009

Timothy Mangum, 59, of Cheyenne died Oct. 7 at the Davis Hospice Center in Cheyenne.

He was born May 5, 1950, in Pittsfield, Mass., to John and Shirley (Stimpson) Mangum.

He served in the U.S. Navy from March 17, 1969, to March 31, 1989, retiring honorably as a senior chief petty officer.

After retirement he moved from Charleston, S.C., to Kings Bay, Ga., where he worked for United Industries and later moved to Martha & Mary Nursing Home as a certified nursing assistant and earned his master's degree in human resource management.

He served as an assistant administrator for the Masonic Retirement Center in Des Moines, Wash., and moved back to Cheyenne and worked for the State of Wyoming Department of Revenue, Liquor Division, as a senior agent.

He enjoyed golf and traveling.

He is survived by his wife, Marsha Mangum of Cheyenne; brother, Tom Mangum of Red Feathers, Colo.; two sisters, Jean Godinez of Fort Collins, Colo., and Judy Hill of Parker, Colo.

He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Bill and Richard Mangum.

Cremation has taken place at Schrader's Sunset Park Crematory with his cremated remains delivered to the U.S. Navy for burial at sea.

A memorial service celebrating his life will be held at a later date.

Funeral arrangements under the direction of Schrader Funeral Home.

Published on: Sunday, Oct 11, 2009 - 12:17:41 am MDT