

EDWARD MCATEER

Hamburg, NJ: Edward 'Big Ed' McAteer of Hamburg, NJ passed away on October 6, 1998. He had fought a long battle with cancer.

Ed was a Navigation Electronics Technician having served aboard the USS Sailfish, Pompon, Cubera, Triton, Edison, Stimson and Carver, retiring after 20 years in 1974 as ETCS(SS) and was extremely proud of his time in service. Ed beamed with pride as his two sons, Robin and Edward II followed in his footsteps.

Ed is survived by his loving wife Rose, three daughters Donna Van Niewland, Kim and Sallie McAteer Southard and his two sons, Edward II and Robin, and ten grandchildren.

Sailor rest your oar.