

WILLIAM HOWARD MORRISSEY

NORTH BROOKFIELD - William Howard Morrissey died at the UMass Memorial Health Center on April 9, 2012. He was born February 8, 1954 in Atlanta, Georgia, the son of the late Alfred P. Morrissey and Mary Morrissey. He was predeceased in 2011 by his Dad and his brother Peter.

He leaves his mother; a sister Susan; brothers Jay and Bucky (Al Jr.); sister in law Karen; brother in law Frank; 3 nieces; 5 nephews; a great niece and nephew.

Bill was a graduate of Westborough High School and held an Associates Degree in Engineering earned at Quinsigamond Community College and then attended the University of Massachusetts in Amherst. He was a Certified Professional IT Technician.

A US Navy veteran, Bill served on the nuclear submarine, the Henry L. Stimson, as a missile technician after attending submarine schools in Groton, CT and King's Bay, GA. After leaving the service, he worked for several years using his electronic skills and then for the Veteran's Construction Team at Devens.

Bill was a reader of military history and especially battles at sea. His hobbies included weight lifting, boxing, motor cycles, and guitars. He was a collector of classic music of various styles and times.

In lieu of flowers a donation in his name to "Save the Children Federation, Inc." is suggested. A memorial service will be for family members at a later date. Pillsbury Funeral Home 44 Gilbert St. North Brookfield is directing arrangements. To offer a condolence or share a memory please visit:

Pillsburyfuneralhome.com