

In Loving Memory

Greg Brookins

August 1, 1966 - December 2013

Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die." - John 11:25-26

A loving son, a caring brother, a warm husband, a great friend. Greg Brookins passed away unexpectedly at a young age of 47 years old on December 2013. He was born on August 1, 1966 in Tampa, Florida to the parents of Vern and Millie Brookins with two siblings of Steve and Don Brookins.

Since Greg was young, his parents had recognized him as a good and responsible person. Greg graduated from Zephyrhills High School in Florida and opted for military service by enlisting in the Navy. The journey through the armed forces continued for 6 years in which he returned after to pursue a university degree in Mechanical Engineering at the University of South Florida. Greg's career encompassed of being employed by major consumer technological companies with the first being Motorola (Florida), Compaq (Texas), and his last at the Hewlett-Packard (Texas).

Shortly in 2000, Greg married Rampaien and lived a happy marriage life until his final moment for 13 years. His wife Rampaien regarded Greg as a fun person whose sense of humor has always brightened her days. A keen interest in food, Greg loved cooking and shared his culinary passion with those around him. Always loving and caring to his wife, his families, and friends, he took pride and happiness in what he does each day. Greg was a man who was dearly loved by surrounding families and friends, and we will all miss his gentle and fun spirit. Your thoughts and prayers are welcome and very much appreciated on this memorial day of our beloved Greg.

Oct 21, 2014

Curtis
Our Son Don Said
You wanted something concerning Greg's death.
Greg had heart attack and died Dec 12, 2013 at his home in Houston, Texas.
We just had a memorial service on Dec 20, 2013.

Millie Brookins