

Chester J. Gorsky

FTB2 B 65-69

September 17, 2007

Chester J. Gorsky, 63, of 7003 Ives Rd., died Monday, September 17, 2007, at Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare. He was born January 19, 1944, in Rome, a son of Chester M. and Betty Del Vecchio Gorsky. He graduated from Holland Patent High School and served in the U.S. Navy from 1963-69. In 1963, he married Charlotte Bigelow in Utica. Mr. Gorsky worked for several local high technology companies holding positions in quality assurance, manufacturing and executive management. Besides his wife, he leaves a son and daughter-in-law, John Paul and Maria Gorsky of Rochester, New Hampshire; two grandchildren, Genevieve and Jacob; and his mother, Betty DeNigro of Utica and her husband, Albert. He also leaves four sisters and two brothers-in-law, Barbara and Tim Taraska, Debbie Berns, Robin and Charles Kincaid, and Teena and Armando Santiago, and several nieces, nephews and cousins. He was predeceased by a son, Peter in 1989, and a brother, Joseph. A private service will be held at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, friends may consider a charity of their choice in his memory.

<http://www.dimblebyfriedelfuneralhomes.com/obituary/Chester-J.-Gorsky/1772751>

